

KEY HIGHLIGHTS – Guinea

This one-pager aims to provide a brief overview of the most salient features of Guinea's national cooperative landscape, based on the detailed input provided by the ICA membership.

Guinea counts one ICA member organization; Federation de Co-operatives d'approvisionnement et de l'alimentation generale (FECAAG) FECAAG is a federation of co-operatives of procurement and general food supply. They are the first consumer co-operative federation in Guinea. Their objective is to provide to their members consumer goods which they get by wholesale purchase, by importation, by manufacturing or by production. They also offer a lot of goods and service delivery.

The data below was gathered through compiling the member's replies to a common questionnaire. For further information, readers are invited to check the methodology in the full report section.

The following figures have been compiled based on the ICA member's data relative to their own member organisations:

Number of cooperatives	3,500 ⁱ
Number of membership	24,500 (estimate)
Number of cooperatives represented in FECAAG	16
Number of membership in FECAAG	3,369

The membership of FECAAG, comprises of 712 women and 174 young people.

These figures are further developed and broken down in the complete Guinea report, freely available online on the #coops4dev website.

This document has been produced with the financial assistance of the European Union. The contents of this document are the sole responsibility of Cooperatives Europe, and can in no way be taken to reflect the views of the European Union.

ⁱ To date, no reliable statistical data is available to know the exact number of cooperatives and similar organizations, nor that of their members. It is estimated that there are more than 3,500 cooperatives in the files of the SACCO regulatory body